

Long Story Short:
The Andrew Ditch Timeline Project
Year: 2024

2024 January 2:

- Andrew's father, Tom, informed Andrew's primary care doctor that Andrew had been sexually abused as a child (Video Link, Timestamp: 59:10). This incident sparked a three-day-long tantrum.
- 5 PM - Andrew had a head-banging tantrum when Tom honked his car horn at him (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:33). Police arrived soon afterward (Video Link). While Tom spoke with Officer Washburn, Andrew carried several boxes of his diapers to the curb for disposal (Video Link). After the officer left, Andrew walked to the police station to file a complaint (Video Link, Timestamp: 34:16). At some point, Tom retrieved Andrew's diapers from the trash, likely while Andrew was at the police station.
- 10 PM - Andrew made a second 911 call, and Officer Butcher arrived soon afterward. Andrew told her that he wanted his half-brother, Michael, arrested for sexually abusing him as a child and that he wanted his diapers returned to the trash (Video Link). When this didn't happen, Andrew went inside to throw away his medications (Video Link).
- 11 PM - Andrew's brother, Joe, recorded a video of Andrew calling the police to request that an officer other than Officer Butcher be sent to the home (Video Link / Archive).

2024 January 3:

- Midnight - Tom and Joe discovered that Andrew had thrown out his diapers and medications. Later that night, Andrew called the police for the third time (Video Link / Archive).
- 2 AM - Andrew spent 30 minutes screaming at a recording of his father (Video Link) where he said the following:

"He's a fucking delusional loony-tick!" (Video Link, Timestamp: 5:20).

- 3 PM - Andrew's Adult Protective Services (APS) worker, Henry, and Officer Rogers visited the Ditch residence. After a discussion, it was decided that Andrew would be taken to Millard Fillmore Suburban Hospital (MFS) (Video Link, Timestamp: 2:52).
- Unknown Time - Andrew left MFS and returned to his parents' home.

2024 January 4 - While Andrew, Tom, and Officer Rogers were at the Ditch residence, Henry spoke to them on the phone. Andrew was sent to Buffalo General Hospital (BGH) shortly afterward (Video Link).

2024 January 5 - While at BGH, Andrew threw a tantrum, ran into traffic, and beat his head against the asphalt until it bled (Video Links: 1, 2, 3, 4).

2024 January 6 - The YouTube channel Lazy Bedhead uploaded a video discussing Andrew titled Andy Ditch: The Poopsquatch | Bedhead's Bizarre LOLCow Adventure (Video Link / Archive). Regarding Andrew's motivation for uploading videos, Lazy Bedhead stated:

"I don't think we need to know exactly what's happening here to know why Andy is doing this. He wants sympathy. He needs confirmation that he is a victim and that the system has failed him time and time again. He wants people's pity" (Video Link / Archive).

2024 January 7 - Andrew first mentioned the Jehovah's Witnesses. He attended their Bible study the following day.

2024 January 11:

- Andrew filmed a shredded, used diaper lying in the center of his parents' living room floor. He claimed that his dogs had torn up the diaper because he had neglected to feed them (Video Link). He also sprays air freshener directly at his dogs, one of whom is already sneezing (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:06).
- Andrew uploaded a video in which he cataloged the places in his parents' home where he had urinated (Video Link).

"I did not mean to piss in my shoe" (Video Link, Timestamp: 1:27).

2024 January 15 - Andrew created a pedophilic text-to-speech dialogue using his Avaz app (Video Link, Timestamp: 25:22). In Andrew's scenario, a man lures a child into his home to play a game, then has the child take off her clothes "so that he can put on a diaper." The adult male character also states that he wants to see the child "pee and poop" in the diaper.

2024 January 18 - Andrew uploaded a video which showed the contents of an open Crinklz brand ABDL diaper filled with diarrhea (Video Link).

2024 January 19 - Andrew created a video comparing the qualities of different diaper brands (Video Link). He included photos of his used, urine-soaked diapers.

2024 January 20 - Andrew uploaded a second video showing the contents of an open adult diaper filled with diarrhea (Video Link).

2024 January 24 - Andrew underwent a psychological assessment through Suburban Adult Services. No final diagnosis was given, as Andrew told the test provider that he had already taken the test before in 2020 and was reciting his answers from the previous session (Psychological Assessment, January 24, 2024 / Archive).

"Due to Andrew's familiarity with the ADOS-2, Module 4, current test results are to be interpreted with caution and a diagnosis is unable to be rendered" (Psychological Assessment, January 24, 2024 / Archive).

2024 January 29 - The following image was visible in a video uploaded by Andrew (Screenshot):

2024 January 30 - Andrew attended another fair hearing. During the fair hearing, Andrew's APS worker, Henry, stated that he had never received any information from Andrew's healthcare providers indicating that Andrew needed a guardian (Video Link, Timestamp: 35:00).

- Andrew uploaded a video of himself brushing his teeth with his finger (Video Link).

2024 February 7 - Andrew ran away from his parents' home because Tom wouldn't make him something to eat (Video Link).

2024 February 16:

- 4 PM - Henry visited the Ditch residence for a home inspection after receiving an email from Andrew that included photos of the home's deteriorating condition (Video Link). Henry ultimately decided that the conditions within the home were not bad enough to contact the Health Department (Video Link, Timestamp: 32:49).
- 5 PM - Andrew tore up his diapers, threw a tantrum, called the police, and made ominous statements about using the stovetop (which wasn't working properly) to potentially start a fire (Video Link, Timestamp: 18:03).
- 9 PM - Andrew made further threats to use the malfunctioning stovetop (Video Link). As this is only an audio recording, it is unclear whether or not he actually turned on the stove.

2024 February 24 - While giggling in an unsettling manner, Andrew took photos of his father as he ate dinner (Video Link). Andrew then crudely edited the photos to make it appear as though the plates of food on the table had diarrhea on them, implying that he may have tampered with the meal (Video Link, Timestamp: 19:38). That night, Andrew also uploaded three edited versions of his January 18, 2024, diaper video (Video Links: 1, 2, 3).

Documentation from a later stay at Rochester General Hospital indicated that the Office of Persons With Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD) had informed Newfane that Andrew was not autistic as he had claimed (Transitions of Care, June 2024 / Archive). Andrew was likely unaware of this until much later.

“Sw [social worker] called Newfane [...] and spoke to the social worker Ashley. [...] She reports patient is not autistic and cannot go to a group home. This is information from OPWDD per Ashley” (Transitions of Care, June 2024 / Archive).
